

GENERAL BUILDING LABORERS' LOCAL NO. 66 ANNUITY PLAN
HARDSHIP WITHDRAWAL RULES AND PROCEDURES

July 1, 2019

This document sets forth the Rules and Procedures followed by the General Building Laborers' Local No. 66 Annuity Plan (the "Plan" or "Fund") in processing Hardship Withdrawal Applications in accordance with the provisions of the Plan.

I. VALID REASONS

A Hardship Distribution may be obtained by a Plan Participant in order to pay the following expenses incurred by the Participant, provided that all of the applicable requirements set forth herein and in the Plan are satisfied:

- A. Medical and Dental Expenses. Medical and/or dental expenses (as defined in Internal Revenue Code Section 213(d)) of at least $1,000 which are incurred in the two-year period immediately preceding the date of the Hardship Withdrawal Application as a result of the injury or sickness of the Participant or his or her spouse or dependent child. Eligible expenses include only those expenses that the Participant is obligated to pay and which have not been reimbursed by (and for which the Participant has no right to reimbursement from) any public or private plan or program (including, but not limited to, Medicare, Medicaid, workers' compensation, the General Building Laborers' Local No. 66 Welfare Fund, or any other employee benefit plan, insurance carrier, employer, union or joint employer-union welfare plan or program. For purposes of this paragraph, the term "dependent child" shall be defined as it is defined under the Welfare Fund.

- B. Funeral Expenses. Funeral expenses for the death of a Participant's spouse, child, parent, sibling or in-law. The withdrawal amount may include all amounts that are included in the funeral home bill (including flowers, cards, transportation, etc.). A withdrawal is not permitted in order to pay for these expenses if they are or can be reimbursed under any other insurance program.

C. Purchase/Construction of Principal Residence. Expenses directly related to the Participant's purchase or construction of his/her principal residence (which may be a house, cooperative or condominium). Expenses eligible for withdrawal include those that are approved by the Fund as being directly related to the purchase or construction of the residence, such as the down payment, contract and title expenses. Mortgage payments are not eligible expenses. In all cases, the amount of the Hardship Withdrawal will be limited to the following: purchase price (or building costs if the house is being built) plus closing costs (including contract and title expenses, attorneys' fees and prepaid interest on a mortgage (points)), minus any mortgage or loan secured by the home and/or property. For purposes of this paragraph, the term "principal" residence shall mean the residence in which the Participant principally resides, which may be no more than 140 miles from the office of the General Building Laborers' Local 66 Funds, unless the Participant provides documentation demonstrating to the satisfaction of the Fund that he/she commutes from a further distance.

D. Post-Secondary Educational Expenses. Expenses incurred in connection with the payment of tuition and/or room and board for post-secondary education (i.e., college, graduate school or technical school) for the Participant, spouse or dependent children, for the semester immediately preceding and/or the semester immediately following the date of the Hardship Withdrawal Application. The Fund does not allow withdrawals for expenses incurred for books, fees, insurance and other miscellaneous expenses or for any tuition and/or room and board expenses that are covered by loans, scholarships or financial aid. However, the Fund does not consider payment via a payment plan to be a loan. The Fund will allow a Hardship Withdrawal for the payment of tuition for an on-line course (or courses) only if the otherwise eligible individual at issue is taking such course(s) in conjunction with in-person attendance at school at that time.

For purposes of this paragraph, the term "dependent child" shall be defined as a Participant's child who is under age 26, who is the Participant's biological child, stepchild, legally adopted child, or child placed with the Participant for adoption.

E. Special Educational Expenses. Expenses for special education tuition fees for a handicapped dependent child of the Participant. Such fees shall not include fund-raising activities, book fees or enrollment fees.

F. Private Educational Expenses. Expenses for tuition fees for private education of a dependent child of the Participant. Such fees shall not include fund-raising activities, book fees or enrollment fees.

- G. Foreclosure/Tax Lien. Expenses necessary to prevent the Participant from losing his/her principal residence (which may be a house, cooperative or condominium) as a result of (1) a foreclosure proceeding (or threatened foreclosure proceeding) brought against the Participant, or (2) a tax lien proceeding (or threatened tax lien proceeding) that is based on the Participant's failure to pay real estate taxes on such property.
- H. Eviction. Expenses necessary to prevent the Participant from losing his/her principal residence as a result of an eviction proceeding (or threatened eviction proceeding) due to the Participant's failure to pay rent, or necessary expenses incurred in order to obtain a new principal residence due to eviction from the Participant's prior principal residence. Withdrawals are permitted for up to six months of past due rent in order to prevent eviction. "Rent" does not include any other expenses, such as parking costs.
- I. Destruction of Principal Residence Due to Fire, Earthquake, Hurricane and Similar "Acts of God". Expenses incurred in order for the Participant to obtain a new principal residence or to renovate a principal residence, or to replace necessary basic household furnishings or belongings, which have been destroyed due to a disaster (such as fire, earthquake, hurricane, major flood, tornado and similar "acts of God") that caused destruction to the Participant's principal residence, where such expenses cannot be satisfied from another source (including insurance or otherwise).
- J. Delinquent Income Taxes. Expenses for payment of delinquent federal and state income taxes owed by the Participant. The withdrawal amount is limited to the actual amount owed to cover delinquent federal and/or state taxes owed by the Participant.
- K. COBRA Coverage. Expenses for the payment of COBRA continuation coverage for the Participant, spouse and/or children under the General Building Laborers' Local No. 66 Welfare Fund.
- L. Attorneys' Fees. Expenses for the payment of attorneys' fees incurred by (i) the Participant, his spouse or dependent child as a result of allegations relating to a criminal act, (ii) the Participant as a result of his or her personal bankruptcy filing or (iii) the Participant as a result of divorce or child support proceedings in which the Participant is a named party.
- M. Handicap-Accessibility. Expenses incurred in order to renovate the Participant's principal residence to make it handicapped accessible for the Participant or a family member.

- N. Delinquent Child Support Payments. Expenses for the payment of all or some of any accumulated delinquent child support expenses incurred pursuant to a domestic relations order, a judgment of divorce or a stipulation of settlement, provided that the Plan shall pay such arrearages directly to the institution that has demanded such payments.

The Fund's Board of Trustees (or their authorized designee) has the sole and absolute discretion to determine whether or not the above contingencies (A through N) have occurred and are supported by appropriate proof and documentation.

IMPORTANT NOTE:

IF A PARTICIPANT MAKES A MISREPRESENTATION RELATING TO HIS BENEFIT APPLICATION, OR FURNISHES FRAUDULENT INFORMATION OR PROOF TO THE FUND OFFICE, SUCH PARTICIPANT WILL NOT BE ENTITLED TO A HARDSHIP DISTRIBUTION FOR A PERIOD OF FIVE (5) YEARS FROM: (I) THE DATE OF THE MISREPRESENTATION OR FRAUD (IN THE CASE OF A FAILURE TO USE WITHDRAWN MONIES FOR THE PURCHASE OF A PRINCIPAL RESIDENCE), OR (II) THE DATE OF THE FUND'S DISCOVERY OF THE MISREPRESENTATION OR FRAUD (IN ALL OTHER TYPES OF WITHDRAWAL SITUATIONS).
